Looking for the RIGHT FIT?

The Waxahachie Daily Light, a daily newspaper in a growing city 30 minutes south of Dallas, is seeking an ambitious, self-starter with storytelling chops to bolster its newsroom by focusing on feature stories of a community nearing 100,000 residents. The beat will concentrate on telling the tales of community members, locally owned businesses and the ever-changing communities of Waxahachie, Red Oak and Midlothian. This position is new, so the reporter will have the opportunity to shape the beat as he or she becomes engrained in the communities. While the sports, courts, crime and education beats are covered, WDL operates as a close-knit team and we often fill in on beats as needed. The more versatile you are, the better. Applicants should be comfortable submitting FOIA requests, posting on social media sites, working in a fast-paced newsroom and hitting a daily deadline. Seasoned vets, those seeking a mid-career change of scenery and recent college graduates are welcome to apply. All applications will be considered and reviewed.
