TWIN LAKES REHABILITATION & CARE CENTER

Suzie Wise, Activity Director

<http://twinlakesrehabandcarecenter.com>

Hello Friends & Neighbors, welcome to our week in review. First thing Tuesday morning our quilting family came and got to work. Those that came were Janice Brown, Janice Morton, and Arce LeGrand. Thanks ladies! In the afternoon we played American Jingo remembering Pearl Harbor. Wednesday morning we enjoyed Bible Study taught by Doris Swindle. In the afternoon the San Augustine Kindergarten Classes came and sang several Christmas songs for the residents. They were so well behaved and so cute! Thursday was Tribune Day so all the residents received their paper bright and early. Then from Affinity Hospice John, Betty, and Bonnie came to play and sing gospel songs. Thanks to all of them. In the afternoon Liberty Hill Baptist Church came and hosted our Monthly Birthday Party. They sang, led in a devotion and brought cakes for everyone to enjoy. Friday morning Travis Bolton and John Smith came praising the Lord with an hour of singing. It was a blessing. After lunch we played Bingo and Leah Binford called the games for us. We had lots of winners! On Sunday morning Brenda Eppes from Liberty Hill Baptist Church taught the Sunday school lesson. After lunch Central Baptist Church from Center came and led in Worship. Thanks to all who come and give of their time for our residents. Monday morning Rose Oliver and Sherry Stevens helped give manicures to our residents. In the afternoon we played Bingo and everyone left with at least one prize. Our "Feel Good Thought" for the week is - "You always pass failure on the way to success." Romans 8:28 "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose." I am in need of Volunteers. Either groups or individuals who would like to give of their time either working with the residents or helping me. So if you feel led - give me a call. 275-2900. Thanks Suzie.

State Rep Jason Issac Gives Commencement at SFA

State Rep. and Stephen F. Austin State University alumnus Jason Isaac will offer the commencement address during SFA's fall graduation ceremonies Saturday, Dec. 17.

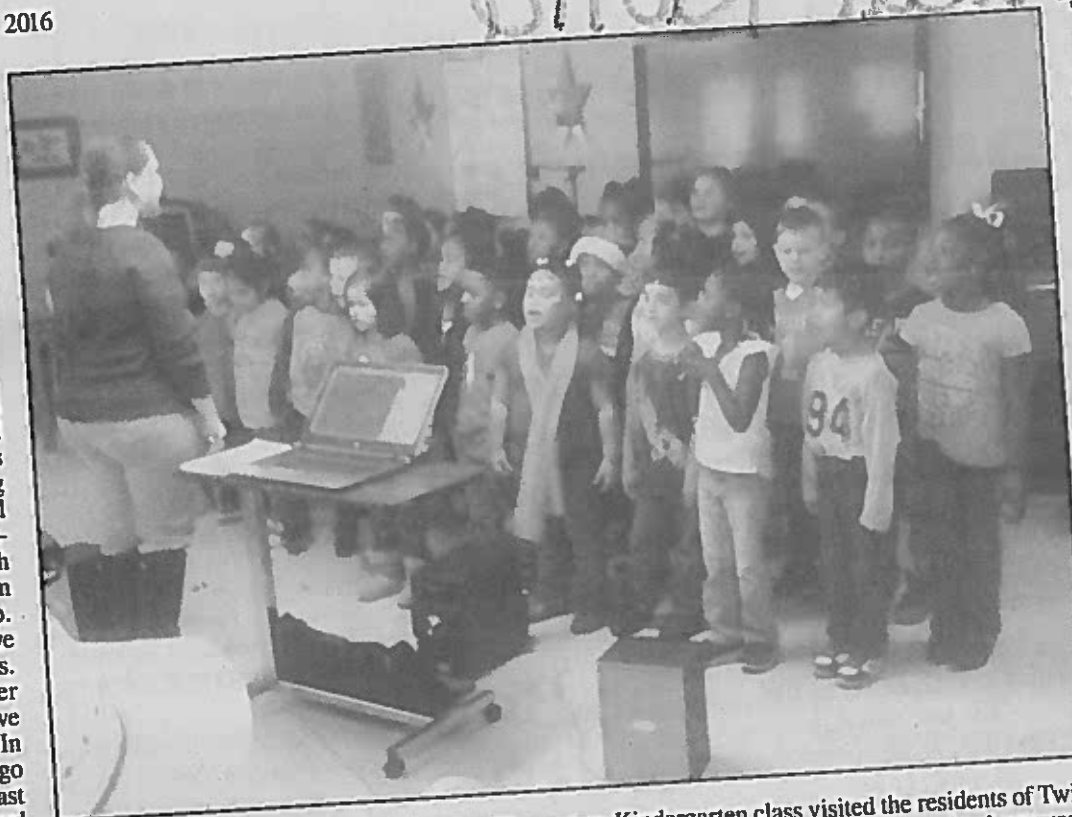

Isaac graduated SFA with a Bachelor of Business Administration in 1996 with a major in marketing and a minor in management. He met his wife, Carrie, in a history class at SFA, and the couple married a few years after graduation. During his time at SFA, Isaac founded the university's lacrosse team, which is still active today, and he was president of the Association of Sports Clubs.

After graduation, Isaac worked in the transportation industry marketing technology to help improve the safety and ef-dent of the Texas Conservative Coalition and founded the Hill Country Caucus, an organization comprising legislators who are dedicated to promoting and preserving the unique features and resources of the Texas Hill Country. The TCC has named Isaac its Courageous Conservative every session.

Candidates from SFA's James I. Perkins College of Education and College of Fine Arts will participate in a 9:30 a.m. ceremony. Candidates from the Arthur Temple College of Forestry and Agriculture, the Rusche College of Business, the College of Liberal and Applied Arts, and the College of Sciences and Mathematics will participate in a 2 p.m. ceremony.

An estimated 938 degrees will be awarded, including 801 bachel-

By Doug Fincher

In 1984, I became the Pastor of The Magnolia Baptist near Vinton, Louisiana in a community called "Big Woods". It was a utopia for anyone wanting peace and quiet. The church was so hidden on a backwoods road that that there were days that not a single vehicle passed through "The Woods". I was particularly overjoyed when I learned that my sister Meri had married my friend Mike Duggan and that they'd be living only six miles from me. My sister's living near me not only gave me her excellent company..... it also gave me her excellent cooking. Her son Jeremy was a senior in high school and often visited the night service at our church. After church, Jeremy, Pam and I would cross the river for a hamburger at Nick's Café.

One afternoon I was on my way to photograph a high school Rodeo star at the Louisiana Tourist Bureau. As I changed lanes to er...don't move!" On the way to the hospital Sherriffi Landry told me that I had crashed into a car that was stalled on the inner-lane of the highway.

When I got home the next day my brother-in-law came and picked glass fragments from my scalp and forehead. My cracked ribs made it impossible for me to get out of the bed and as I lay wondering what to do, Jeremy walked in the door. "How'ye doing, Docta?", he laughed. "I've got a week off from school and have come to take care of you." He stayed with me all week and did everything needed to speed me to recovery.

Pam and I met Jeremy and his wife for lunch in Marshall, Texas last week. Jeremy was the same boy (just 30 years Older)...

emy..... I love that boy.

Pinning Ceremony for AC Surgical Tech Graduates

Graduate of Angelina College's surgical technology program will receive their pins Dec. 15 at 7 p.m. in Hudgins Hall. Graduates include Priscilla Davenport, Zachary Bridges, Tiffany Phillips, Gloria Hunt, Emmili Jackson, Cindy Cearley, Solyimar Torres, Meagan Nunn, Britnee Cooper.

Stafanie Vaughn, program director, said, "This class has worked tirelessly to complete 624 clinical hours in less than a year. They made it though and are ready to join the workforce and a new chapter in their lives."

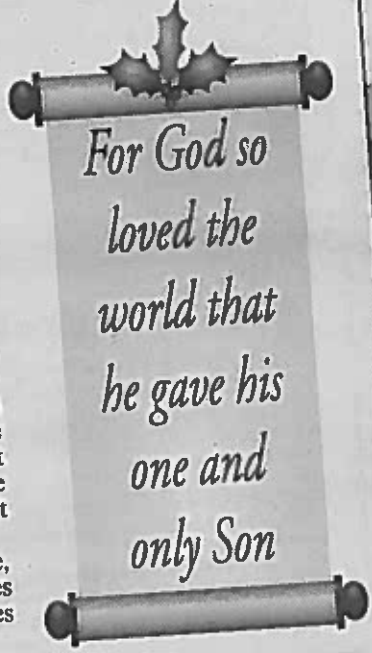

Vaughn said that few people realize exactly what surgical technologists do. "They are an integral part of the surgical team and yet they are the faceless team member that not many patients will ever remember or know that they were there, not to mention the important role they play."

Surgical technologists are members of operating room teams and work under the supervision of the surgeon. Before an operation, they prepare sterile surgical instruments, equipment and supplies. They assemble the sterile equipment and ensure it is all working properly.

During the surgical procedure, the surgical technologist passes instruments and needed supplies to the surgeon and receives tissue specimens. They ensure that there are no breaks in sterile technique so that the patient does not acquire an infection.

The surgical technologist program runs from January to December, prospective students must meet prerequisites or be in process of taking them, to apply. For more information about this program at Angelina College, contact Stefanie Vaughn at svaughn@angelina.edu.

Woodland Heights Now Offering 3D Mammography Exams

Beginning December 13, Woodland Heights Medical Center is excited to offer 3-dimensional mammography exams. Utilizing advanced breast tomosynthesis technology, these exams are clinically proven to significantly increase the detection of breast cancers, while simultaneously decreasing the number of women asked to return for additional testing (compared to 2D mammography).

In conventional 2D mammography, overlapping tissue is a leading reason why small breast cancers may be missed and normal tissue may appear abnormal, leading to unnecessary callbacks. A Genius exam includes a three-dimensional method of imaging that can greatly reduce the tissue overlap effect.

The exams given at Woodland Heights include both 2D images and tomosynthesis scans. During the tomosynthesis-DIMENSIONAL portion of the exam, an X-ray arm sweeps in a slight arc over the breast, taking multiple images. A computer then converts the images into a stack of thin layers, allowing the radiologist to review the breast tissue one layer at a time. A Genius exam requires no additional compression and takes just a few seconds longer than a conventional 2D breast cancer screening exam.

This new system is the only clinically superior breast tomosynthesis system as approved by the FDA. The new system is recommended for women of all ages and breast densities. The system allows our radiologists to more effectively pinpoint the size, shape and location of abnormalities. This leads to better detection and greater peace of mind for our patients.

Woodland Heights is committed to the fight against breast cancer. "Breast cancer can be aggressive so we must be aggressive in the diagnosis," states Kyle Swift, CEO of Woodland Heights. "Bringing this technology to the women of East Texas is important to us. Their health is our priority." In offering the Genius exam, Woodland Heights provides a more accurate* tool for breast cancer screening.

For more information, visit WoodlandHeights.net or call 936-637-8618 to make an appointment.

SAISD Accepting Referrals For GT

San Augustine ISD is now accepting referrals for students who may need Gifted/Talented Services for the school year. This program is designed for students who exhibit intellectual and creative thinking abilities at an extraordinary level not normally served in the regular classroom. Services are provided only upon identification needs of the student. Anyone wishing to refer a student attending San Augustine ISD in kindergarten through 12th grade this school year is asked to go by the student's campus office and request a copy of the referral form. This form must be returned to the school by December 15th, 2016. Those unable to go by the school call Sharon Cartwright 936/275-9603 (high school campus) or Lisa Henly 936/275-3424 (elementary campus) to request a form be sent to them.

NOTICE

San Augustine Independent School District proposes to destroy special education records of students who were removed from the special education program or who graduated from San Augustine ISD within the academic year 2010-2011. This purge of records is within Texas Education Agency guidelines, which require school districts to keep special education records for a period of five years. Parents of students or former special education adult students should notify Shelia Denby Horrocks-Special Education Administrator 936-275-2302, if they want to obtain these records. Deadline for records request is January 9, 2017.

AVISO

El distrito escolar independiente de San Augustine propone destruir expedientes de la educación especial de los estudiantes que fueron quitados del programa educativo especial o que graduaron de la DSI de San Augustine dentro del curso académico 2010-2011. Esta purgación de expedientes está dentro de las pautas de la agencia de la educación de Tejas, que requieren los distritos escolares guardar los expedientes de la educación especial por un período de cinco años. Los padres de estudiantes o de estudiantes adultos anteriores de la educación especial deben notificar Shelia Denby Horrocks en la oficina de la educación especial de la DSI de San Augustine en 936-275-2302 si quieren obtener estos expedientes. El plazo para las solicitudes de registro es el 9 de enero de 2017.

Perry to Address Sanctuary Campuses in Senate Bill 4

Last month, Sen. Charles Perry (R - Lubbock) filed priority legislation, Senate Bill 4, to eliminate sanctuary cities in the State of Texas. Since filing this legislation, there has been a push to turn colleges and universities into "sanctuary campuses." "Our legislation is simple - government entities cannot undermine the rule of law by ignoring our immigration laws," said Perry. "If colleges and universities intend to follow the example of sanctuary cities, we must ensure that our legislation specifically includes them." Earlier this week, Governor Greg Abbott tweeted, emphasizing that his office would not allow sanctuary campuses to exist, stating: "Texas will not tolerate sanctuary campuses or cities. I will cut funding for any state campus if it establishes sanctuary status."

Perry continued, "Officers, while investigating a crime or an offense, should not be denied the ability to seek more information about the individual they have detained. At the end of the day, this bill is about keeping our schools and communities safe." "I look forward to a unified effort this session to comprehensively address this problem once and for all," said Perry.

"Mini-Elvis," Carey Westley aka "Etoile Elvis" and Jesse Wilburn aka "Uncle Elvis." The Branson-like variety show is hosted by Brad Maule aka "Dr. Tony Jones," who also sings his favorite "Texas Swing" songs. Nationally-known comedian, Willie P. Richardson, co-hosts the event and brings his unique style of Southern Humor. The show also features The Road Show Band with Music Director Stephen Pate and his wife, Jan Pate, Jason Kelley, Bo Miller, Sarah Griffin-Humphries and C. D. Schull. Also performing will be special guests Courtney and Gilbert Burch, Nathan "Pogie" Alders, Devin Horchem, sisters Ally Fuller and Kate Kovar and others. The popular quarterly years, the show has performed in Galveston, Carthage, Lufkin, Tyler and Pineland. "This is home-grown music and variety show featuring professional performers and always including young, up-and-coming singers and musicians. The show is acceptable to all ages and fun for everyone," said Kim Cris the show's producer. Advance tickets are $20 at Spring 2 Prince, Nacogdoches Light and iTickets.com.
