Seeking ace reporter with digital chops

The Corsicana Daily Sun in Corsicana, Texas, a 4-day-daily located 50 miles from Dallas is in search of our next ace news reporter. This is a full-time, permanent position with benefits. This position will help transform the Daily Sun newsroom into a 24/7 online mega-presence.

Here are some things you should know:

- We want reporters who make us -- and the community by extension -- stronger through impactful journalism.
- We want reporters who can focus on posting error-free basic stories to our digital platforms, and who have the ability to do all things digital.
- We want a social media savvy reporter.
- We want reporters who constantly avoid publishing boring traditional content in favor of alternative ideas that will connect with our audience.

Our ideal candidate:

- will want to produce top-notch watchdog journalism.
- will have exceptional cross-platform storytelling skills
- will have exceptional core journalism skills (reporting, producing, editing).
- is self-motivated and self-directed.
- has advanced knowledge of social media and how to engage fan base on digital platforms in the public space.
- has strong photo and video skills.
- is an effective communicator and is able to get along with diverse personalities.
- is a multi-tasker, organized and a master of time management.
- is able to multi-task and excel under intense deadline pressure in a rapidly changing environment.
- is competent in writing, spelling, grammar and AP.

We are a small staff with big dreams, diverse and important goals and high expectations. If you have the skills we are seeking, send a cover letter, resume, 5 writing clips and several social media and digital examples to Daily Sun managing editor Michael Kormos. Please send materials only through email mikormos@corsicanadailysun.com or a link to a digital portfolio.
