H.B. 3674 transformed Section 132.001 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code – a little-known provision dealing solely with the use of unsworn declarations by inmates (since they have limited access to notaries) – into a provision with very broad potential implications. As passed, the amended provision allows the use of an unsworn written declaration made under penalty of perjury in lieu of a written sworn declaration, verification, certification, oath, or affidavit required by statute or required by a rule, order, or requirement adopted as provided by law. (The section does not apply to an oath of office or an oath required to be taken before a specified official other than a notary.) The new law is effective September 1, 2011.
